U.S. District Court,

Memphis Police Department broke Robert R. Granito's Constitutional Rights by false imprisonment, false^{no} evidence that backs up the MPD charges on me.

Constitutional Rights that has been broken. Section 15, 16, 17 and the Amendment Rights VI, IV has been broken.

Memphis Police Department held my lower back when they interrogated me! Memphis Police Department didn't secure the home the defendant was arrested at and every thing was stolen. The defendant ran his own business out of his house and now every thing was stolen! After trial I'm homeless thanks to the MPD! I can't run a business any more because all tools and equipment was stolen.

My 14th amendment also has been violated. The MPD also intreped me to say a beginning statement ~~to~~ and bargained with me with me to say or sign off on a beginning statement. I have all evidence to back me up. The affidavit is also false. They stated things in their that didn't even happen like they were over seeing the crime I didnt commit. All evidence states I protected myself from a criminal. that I called the Memphis Police Department on the day before. The police came and told the trespasser to leave the property. The officer said he will probably be back and call the police again. I agreed and wondered why the officer didnt arrest the intruder! I have a police report on this intruder the day before. He was illegally on the property I lived at. What am I sposed to do let an intruder kill me in my own house? I dont think so over my constitutional rights. I need an Injunction with this suit. Thank you.
